

Slide 1: Welcome

Books From Children To Children - 2026 Writing Competition

Theme: Climate Change. Free to enter. Ages 0-11.

Slide 2: Who can enter?

- Children aged 0-11 in the United Kingdom.
- UK primary schools and home-educated children.
- One entry per child.
- No entry fee. Ever.

Slide 3: What to write

- Story: 100-500 words.
- Or poem: up to 24 lines.
- On the theme of Climate Change.
- Original work only. No AI-generated content.

Slide 4: How to submit

Email entries to info@jaycesworldoflearning.co.uk

Subject: BFCTC 2026 - [Child's Name] - [Story Title]

Include: child's name, age, school, city/town, parent/guardian name and contact.

Slide 5: Key dates

- Deadline: 11 September 2026 at midnight (UK time).
- Shortlist announced: October 2026.
- Anthology launch: late 2026.

Slide 6: What winners receive

- Professional editing.
- Author credit and ISBN in a real published anthology.
- A physical copy of the anthology.
- An invitation to the launch event.

Slide 7: Resources

- Full guidelines: jaycesworldoflearning.co.uk/competition/guidelines/
- How to enter: jaycesworldoflearning.co.uk/competition/how-to-enter/
- Parent consent: in this resource pack.
- Email questions to info@jaycesworldoflearning.co.uk

[ NOTE: This PDF replaces the PPTX in the placeholder pack. A designed slide deck can be uploaded with the .pptx extension if available. ]